Prologue:

Firey wakes up in an island that had a lot of stuff along with 14 other students. Firey is confused on what's happening soon the host/ headmaster, Four tells them that they're in a killing game. X is also there as the co-host for the killing game. Firey was the ultimate arsonist he didn't really think he deserved the title but thought of it as an accident. Soon Firey got to know everyone in the killing game. And grew close to them. Now that's where the game began.

Firey wakes up the next day and decided to bond with Leafy. He didn't know her quite well since they had a quick interaction during the first time they got here. They grew close together. Firey gained someone close to him at least. Next day came. He decided to hang out with Flower. He didn't mind spending the day with her but all he did was talk about loser most of the time. Day three of being in the killing game. The motive arrived! If no one kills in three days they'd disappear into existence not to be seen or remembered. (I'm using this motive again for a reason, you'll see) A day had passed no one had killed. Firey was worried. Yes it had only been a day but still there was minimum time of them living. Then came the next day. There was someone in the playground. Dead. Ruby ultimate Geologist was smashed into pieces. Flower was devastated at the sight of Ruby's death since Ruby was one of the first to notice Flower's Beauties. Firey cheered flower up and motivated her that they'll avenge Ruby's death. Then came investigation time. Firey noticed a lot of clues. He decided to solve it in the trial. Then trial came. Firey tried to figure all the clues out piece by piece. Then it all made sense. Loser didn't want to fade into existence so he decided to kill someone. And that someone was Ruby! He couldn't believe it. Loser. Someone he was a fan of. Killed someone as sweet as Ruby? I can't believe it. Firey gathered the courage to confront loser. Yep. It was true. Loser killed Ruby. Such a shame. He was also dragged in the execution. Being strapped to a giant star above the ground was traumatizing for him since he had a huge fear of heights.

Chapter 2

A few days had passed since Ruby and Loser's death. He was scared of dying. He didn't want this. He just decided to bottle it all up and just deal with it. It's a killing game after all. He spent the next days getting to know some other people. He tried to get to know the so called "Newbie Alliance" Gelatin, Lollipop and Teardrop were in. Soon he was tired and went to bed. He woke up the next day to everyone gathered by four. They gave then files each. He opened the file that was given to him and it said. "Gelatin tried impersonating Loser once and went to jail for it." Geez. What a great time to mention Loser. Then four proceeded to explain that we were all given secrets of each contestant all were randomized. Days had passed. And then we witnessed a truly horrifying sight. Taco murdered Bubble. Right infront of our eyes. As Firey heard from Leafy they had a conflict about something and was now arguing about it. But that led Taco being executed and killed.

Chapter 3

These past few days were draining for Firey. He was mentally tired. He didn't want to do this anymore. He was so fed up about this killing game.
He decided to lighten his mood up and do pranks with Blocky though it was normal pranks like whoopee cushion and buckets of water getting poured on you it might've just brighten up Firey's day. Until the third motive came. Everyone would constantly have hallucinations of their biggest fear. It happened to Firey a few times a day. He would see himself either getting submerged in water or being on the edge of buildings about to fall. Firey just tried to get used to it but it was still traumatizing him. He hated this feeling. So he tried spending time with leafy. Also comforting her in the process. He talked to Flower about his problems about this killing game and Flower seemed to understand and was there for him. But then. He saw a horrible sight stand before him. Woody was dead. He was brutally beaten up. But that wasn't just it. Lollipop was also dead head half melted by the stove. Here we go again. As they were trying to figure out. Leafy had clues and it pinned the culprit. Teardrop. Gelatin was stunned and tried to fight back. But with all the evidence he couldn't. It was confessed by teardrop that she witnessed Lollipop killing Woody and Lollipop saw her and tried to kill her since she was a witness but she went to far and accidentally murdered lollipop. There Teardrop was executed. Gelatin was devastated and isolated himself in his room.

Chapter 4

Finally four and X let them have break from the killing. Surprisingly. Firey was stressed from all thats been happening. 7 objects had died in the past few weeks. All the motives. Executions everything was stressful. But he tried to stay focus and survive this predicament. But then he woke up one day and felt. Rather.. different. Everyone else was different. Instead of Firey being the Sympathetic, Dim witted object he was. He felt like he was the exact opposite. Four explained that if no one killed they would be stuck having the opposite of their original personality forever. They only way to have your normal personality back was to kill someone. Firey seemed to hate leafy now. Leafy was now the mean and sensitive object which Firey hated about her. Leafy would boast about being rather one of the meanest ones here to everyone and when someone would say no to that she gets all sensitive and defenseless and those which annoyed firey a lot. Then there soon it was. Leafy's dead torn body infront of Firey. Everyone was back to normal. Firey genuinely cared about leafy. Now she was dead. Flower consulted firey about it and told him that everything would be alright. If they would avenge Ruby they would also avenge Leafy aswell. Then came the trial. Everyone was arguing about the clues and who the culprit was. This trial was louder than any other trial then. He started to piece it all together. There he found that Leafy tried killing Blocky but that led to Blocky killing her in fear. As much as Blocky tried to fight he was found guilty and was executed.

Chapter 5

Firey was still devastated over Leafy's death but was told by Flower to move on, on which leafy would want that for him. So he did and became a new and changed person. He would be determined to save everyone in the game. No one should die he has to put a stop to this. No they have to put a stop to this. But. Soon after that. Profily died. They didn't even give a motive yet. Who could be that brutal to kill Profily. Then in the trial the blackened confessed. Profily wanted to do a favor and sacrifice themselves for the safety of the others so they asked someone to kill them. And they agreed. Planning every bit of it out. And it succeeded. Balloony killed profily. They did it. Firey have balloony a gentle nod thanking him for the sacrifice.

Chapter 6

There it was. Only four remain. One of them being the mastermind. Gelatin and Spongy tried to look for some clues on who might the mastermind be. Flower on the other hand decided to take matters into her own hand this time. She searched around the island for clues. This island was big considering it had everything in it. There she saw the huge golden gate that was keeping them in. She saw a contestant vote on some old TV. And there she saw the votes. Now, she had to figure out a way to start a trial. She went over to Firey to maybe asking him for a way to start a trial. Firey suggested maybe doing something that could start one. There Firey and Flower's plan was in action. Firey stole a diary that read Donut's diary and then Four and X found it and started a random trial for the missing diary. There they planned on giving it back only to discuss about the Mastermind. Four could've killed them but decided to let them do it. There Flower stared to explain what she saw. She saw contestant votes on an old TV. It had Firey having the highest votes and on the back of it, It had a sticky note that said. Clip of Firey winning dream island. Firey was confused of that statement was Flower saying that Firey was the mastermind? No it can't be. Well it cant be. And it is. Firey was soon found out to be the mastermind. Four said that erased most of their memories including Firey's. Firey claimed that he still wanted to do something after losing dream island. So he started a killing game. Four and X was in this and they decided to make a copy of dream island and erase their memories and trap them in there. Firey couldn't believe it. He. Started this killing game. The reason everyone died was because of his doings. He was filled with despair. So much despair was inside of him. He couldn't take it he decided to execute himself. He didn't want to live in this miserable world no longer. It wasn't worth living. There he grabbed the button from four and X and he proceeded to press it. There they made an execution for Firey. The remaining three watched as he got killed. Flower couldn't believe the sight she was seeing also Gelatin and Spongy. There they were set free.
